IEEE SUMMER OF CODE

WHAT IS IEEE SOC?

IEEE Summer of Code is a premier open-source initiative designed to empower students and professionals by fostering contributions to impactful open-source projects. This event provides a competitive environment, hands-on development experience, and networking opportunities with industry leaders & peers. Participants will collaborate on real-world projects, refine their coding skills, and compete for rewards.

IEEE Summer of Code (SoC) is your ultimate gateway into the open-source universe, crafted by IEEE CS BMSIT&M in collaboration with the IEEE BMSIT&M & Sponsored by IEEE Young Professionals

Over seven weeks, you'll dive headfirst into live projects that solve real problems, working with a vibrant hybrid community.

- Code from home (or your favorite café)
- Meet IRL during "Meet & Code" sessions where ideas spark over coffee & whiteboards.
